

FEBRUARY 7, 2010

"Go make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit." Matthew 28:19

On Our Recent Council/Staff Retreat

As you know, I personally believe that all churches have the same mission: to "make disciples of all nations." We talked extensively at the retreat about staying focused on our mission to "make disciples" and we talked about the distraction of becoming embroiled in denominational politics. It may seem self-serving, but I honestly believe it is God-serving for us to think congregationally rather than denominational. After all, "we believe in the holy catholic church" which transcends all earthly denominations. We have always been pretty independent and I suspect we will always be pretty independent regardless of what our denominational alliance might be.

On Faith Community's Future

I have been asked a lot lately, "What is Faith Community going to do?" My standard answer is that "We are going to listen for God's call." I know that there is impatience on the part of some who want to know now what FCLC is "going to do." But you know what? The Bible speaks frequently about learning to "wait on the Lord." That is hard for an "I want answers now culture," but there is a lot of virtue in being careful and prayerful.

People who may be relatively new to Faith Community may believe I am being evasive. People that have been around here for a number of years know that I am being consistent and our focus will continue to be our mission "to make disciples" and that we will always be reluctant to allow ourselves to become embroiled in denominational politics. That is not avoidance; that is being mission-driven. As I said in a recent sermon, "Do you really think when we get to heaven that God is going to be concerned about whether we are Methodist, Baptist or Lutheran—and which "flavor" Lutheran? Or, do you believe that God is going to be concerned about whether or not we believed in the One who died on the cross for our sins?" Please, let's keep the "main thing" the main thing; knowing Jesus Christ as our personal Lord and Savior, and following the call to "Go make disciples!"

On another note, it is no secret that our 7:45 AM service never "caught on" this fall. As I mentioned at our annual meeting last month, we maybe tried a little too hard to preserve a "dedicated" education hour. My guess is that an 8:00 AM, 9:30 AM (worship and Sunday School), and 11:00 AM schedule would have caught on, and that would make our schedule much less rushed!!! Do not get me wrong, I value education! But there is more than one way to value it. My dad's church had three Sunday school hours running concurrently with the 8:00 AM, 9:30 AM and 11:00 AM worship services. Was that ideal? No. Did it work? Yes. Life is rarely ideal. Now on the other hand, if someone has a million dollar check to hand us to get another building project started, then maybe we don't have to add a 3rd Sunday service—we can just expand the building. But in the meantime, like most large churches, we probably need three worship services on Sundays in order to make room for more worshipers. Praise God!

On Our Core Values and Our Hospitality

Hopefully most visitors can spot our core values readily! “To be a church that is:

- 1) Bible-centered
- 2) Prayer-centered
- 3) Worship-centered with an inspirational blend
- 4) Kid-friendly
- 5) Visitor-friendly
- 6) A model of the Priesthood of believers
- 7) A model of first-fruits giving.”

That’s us, don’t you think? Mostly, but you know what? Lately, we have had to confront the uncomfortable truth that as we grow, it may be harder for newer families to “break in” and feel at home than perhaps in the past when we were a smaller church. Please join me in reaching out to those who might be new in our midst...inviting them to Sunday school or to Bible study or the next fellowship event that you are aware of from the newsletter...or to join your table for Wednesday suppers.

On Our New Member Assimilation

Is it possible to grow too fast? Sometimes, and for churches that means losing new members out the “back door” while new people are coming in the “front door.” Studies indicate that churches have about six weeks to get new members involved; after that it is much harder because they will decide they are not needed, or they will slip into inactivity, or they will simply slip away altogether. While some people are “self-starters” and they quickly jump into church activities, most folks need encouragement and personal invitations to get involved. While the challenge of this task usually falls primarily on church staffs and councils, truly it is best if we all work together to welcome and encourage the involvement of our new members. Thanks for your help in this vital ministry!

Your Partner in Ministry,
Pastor Dan

Vida Abundante Centro Cristiano

Translation: Abundant Life Christian Center

“Centro Cristiano” held our first Worship service at Faith Community Lutheran Church in January 2009. We have been worshiping at FCLC for an entire year! Since our first service, we have had several outreach services/events focused mainly in the Hispanic community. Our first event was on Valentine’s Day. We have seen families stay and become part of our congregation!

We normally meet three times a week. We continue to be a small group but have seen our group grow every month!

At every meeting, prayer, and service we thank God for allowing us to worship at FCLC and we ask that God continues to bless you all abundantly. We know that God is faithful, true, and keeps every single one of his promises.

Our church is composed mainly of Hispanics and our focus in 2010 is to work as much as possible. We hope to expand our outreach in our community, and to make a difference as well, so this means lots of work ahead for us! We are blessed to have very passionate individuals that are willing to work and impact our city. Longmont alone has over 20,000 Hispanic individuals that don’t know Christ as their Savior!

Thank you, thank you, and thank you for everything you do, for your kindness, and for who you are!

Blessings, Pastor Alfredo & Monica Rodriguez

Feliz Dia del Amor y la Amistad!

Translation: Happy Valentine’s Day!

Sunday, February 14th, 3:00 PM

Centro Cristiano would like to invite all of us at FCLC to their Valentine’s Day celebration and worship! It is an event for the whole family! There will be food, activities, and games for everyone to enjoy and participate in. It is free and ALL are welcome!

The Season of Lent

Lent is a forty-day season of “preparation for the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ” which we celebrate on Easter Sunday and EVERY Sunday. Lent begins Ash Wednesday, February 17th, where we receive the mark of the cross in ashes on our foreheads as a reminder that we were created from dust and to dust we shall return. Lent continues for 40 days and culminates in Holy Week (beginning with Palm Sunday, and continuing through Maundy Thursday and Good Friday.) Please note that Sundays are not counted in the 40-day season of Lent because we celebrate Christ’s resurrection on Sunday EACH week. There is actually 46 days from Ash Wednesday through Easter Sunday in 2010. Three days after Good Friday, Jesus rose from the dead. The Good News! Easter!

This year’s Lenten theme is “MISSION: POSSIBLE.” Family, Hunger, World, Help, Fear, and Hope. We will explore these themes through our Lenten devotional and worship services. Lenten worship services this year will again include the Holden Evening Prayer and Lenten dramas.

Other events and activities that will happen throughout Lent include soup suppers, the Seder dinner, the Sunday School Easter Extravaganza, Easter breakfast (put on by our Youth to sponsor the Youth Mission Trip), Easter lilies, and spring cleaning (March 27th). Please look for more details in future editions of the Faith Communicator and on FCLCnews.

Our service project will culminate with a Samoa-in-an-Hour experience on February 14th during the Sunday School hour. We will be sampling Samoan foods, playing Samoan games, and hearing God's Word in Samoan. We will be packing up the collected school supplies that day too!

Spaghetti Dinner and Silent Auction

HELP Support your Youth as they prepare themselves for their Mission Trip to serve the community of Parsons, KS. next summer. They are putting together a Spaghetti Dinner and Silent Auction on:

Friday, February 26th
5:00 PM to 8:00 PM

Proceeds will help us get one step closer to Kansas.

Bring your family, friends and neighbors and let us serve and give you a good time.

Our Youth will be selling tickets after each service.

Our church pictorial directories are finally here! For those of you who had your picture taken by LifeTouch or who submitted a photo, you will find a copy of the directory in your mailbox. For those who did not participate in the directory, there are about 50 copies available for sale ($5). If you are interested in one of those, please see the church office.

Why doesn't everyone get a directory? We have no budget for purchasing additional copies ($6/each from LifeTouch). We do get some extra copies from "points" we receive based upon the number of families photographed. Since we do NOT have enough to hand one to every family, we are selling the extra copies.

If you do not wish to purchase a directory, you can still get a copy of the church roster via email. Contact office@fclc.org for further information. I am also hoping we will be able to get access to our directory information online (details to follow).

Thanks again, to all those who helped in the production of the directory and in the efforts to get families photographed! A special thanks goes to Kaydene Hubert, who did all the design and layout work!

If you have any questions, please email me at sallyjmeier@yahoo.com.

Thanks,
 Sally Meier, Fellowship Chair

Shekinah Christian Ministries

“I was in prison and you came to visit Me...” Matthew 25:36

Shekinah Christian Ministry is located at 2040 Terry Street in Longmont. They have ministered in prisons throughout Colorado and Wyoming for over thirty years. Their mission: To Share the Gospel with prisoners so they can find real freedom through that knowledge; redirecting them from destructive patterns and encouraging them to find true purpose.

Men and women who are released from a prison facility are usually in need of some form of transportation. If you have an old bike that is taking up precious space in your garage, they would be happy to take it off your hands. Pick up is available by request. Call 303-682-9593.

Stover's Project: Longmont Connection

Please save Friday Night, March 5th, from 5:30 PM - 8:30 PM. We will be attending a "meal and worship in the park" event for the homeless in Longmont. Nancy Tway from our congregation has been a part of homeless ministry in Longmont for several years and is our contact person for this venture. This event takes place every Friday night in a nearby park in Longmont. An organization called Common Cathedral hosts this weekly gathering. We are going to attend this, rub shoulders, eat, and worship with our brothers and sisters who are homeless. We will gather at FCLC at 5:45 PM and travel from there. Those going on the Stover's Project in Minnesota next month will join members from our congregation interested in Homeless ministry. Please find a sign up for this event at the welcome center beginning Sunday, February 14th. Although we encourage ages 16 and up to join us, if you and your family would like to attend this, please do!

Questions? Please contact Nancy Tway at 303-651-7253.

Kids Hope USA

In an effort to introduce you to the Kids Hope mentors and have you get to know them better, I am beginning a new section of the newsletter called "Meet the Mentors." I hope this will give everyone a clearer vision of what Kids Hope is all about. If you ever have any questions about Kids Hope, you can ask me, or one of the wonderful volunteers who are currently mentoring children at Sanborn Elementary. I am sure they would be happy to share more about their experience with KHUSA.

MEET THE MENTORS

I am not sure which one of us was more nervous the first day we met; my new friend, Rachael, or me. It sure has been a long time since I had a third grade girl around (about 15 years). Okay, God, I am here, but now what do I do?? As usual, God opened up the doors to say, "Here, try this and see what happens." After several smiles, one hour of fun and games such as a "Getting to Know You" workbook, a game of "Go Fish," a tour of the school led by Rachael, and even a little school work thrown in, Rachael and I began our journey with Kids Hope.

Now, each week I look forward to Thursday when I know that as I peek into the classroom Rachael will jump up, run to greet me at the door, and give me a BIG hug and a smile that lights up my world. (Hmmmm...so THIS is what happens with a little trust in God!) We chat about our week gone by; she tells me about seeing a movie with her mom, her dream to design clothes when she grows up, her times with her sister, and her new friend, Trinity.

On the playground Rachael encourages her friend Trinity to join in a basketball game with us... "Come on Trinity, don't be shy, this is just my friend, Renee." I love the "just my friend" part because I know how hard it is to cross that friendship line at this age.

Oftentimes I am amazed at how mature she is for her young years as she relates life lessons that take some of us years and years to learn. Wow...the things I can learn from Rachael. I just bring a little snack, let her make most of the day's choices, spend time on the playground listening to children's laughter, and my job is done. Really, it's that easy, God? I am blessed and so thankful to God for allowing Rachael and I to make the Kids Hope journey together!

Renee McDermid,
Kids Hope USA Mentor and member of FCLC

Hi, my name is Duane Sharp. I am a Kids Hope mentor for a 5th grade student named Justin at Sanborn Elementary School.

Kids Hope provides a booklet called "All About Me" which is a great tool for getting to know someone. Justin and I spent the 1st two sessions just filling out this booklet. He filled out one for me, and I filled out one for him. The "All About Me" booklet asks questions like "What is your favorite color, food, sport," etc.

The question that made the biggest impact on me was "who is your best friend?" His answer was his cat. He is a lonely child and needs a friend. That is what I intend to be for him.

I have taught him our family card game called "Kings in the Corner." We are currently improving our chess skills together.

I am glad to do my little part with this organization, because I certainly see the need. Ed Smith supports our relationship with his prayers.

LaRae again:

Justin's teacher stopped me in the hallway yesterday at Sanborn, and said, "I can't tell you enough how wonderful this program is! Justin looks SO forward to his Tuesday meetings with Duane, and I don't know if there is a correlation, but he has had a lot fewer behavioral issues since joining Kids Hope."

Won't you consider spending one hour a week changing the life of a child? Let me know if you are interested in more information about Kids Hope USA. We will need new volunteers for the 2010-2011 school year! My email is larae@fclc.org .
